

KS3 History Home learning Choice Board

What do I need to do?

-  Complete ONE challenge task independently by Friday 27th November 2026.
-  Choose any one of the 12 challenge tasks in the following slides.
-  You are welcome to complete more than one task. You may work with a friend on extra tasks, but at least one task must be completed on your own.

How do I submit it?

-  Deadline: 27th November 2026, 5pm.
-  Submit your work on Google Classroom. If you have created a physical resource, hand it to your teacher and upload a photo of it to Google Classroom.

What are we looking for?

- Your work should show high effort and creativity. You have 6 to complete it, so take your time and produce something you are proud of.
- Aim to spend around 30 minutes per week working on your project.

Why is it important?

- Your teacher will review your work and it will contribute towards your End of Term Report
- You could create something that helps you revise or a resource that could be used by future students. Excellent work may even be displayed or shared with next year's classes!

1. Historical Exploration

Explore the Past

Use Google Earth, Google Maps, or Street View to explore a historical place.

Include screenshots and explain what the place tells us about the past and how it has changed over time.

Focus on skills: using evidence, identifying change and continuity, and explaining significance.

Tip: Add labels to your images to explain what happened, when it happened, and why it matters.

2. Magazine Article Project

Communicate History

Create a detailed magazine article about one aspect of History.

Include a headline, introduction, subheadings, accurate historical information, supporting evidence, images, and a conclusion.

Focus on skills: explaining ideas clearly, using evidence, and selecting important information.

Tip: Choose one part of the topic and explore it in depth, rather than trying to explain everything.

3. Top Trumps

Apply Historical Knowledge

Create a set of Top Trumps cards about one topic studied this year. Make at least 15 cards with at least 5 categories.

Each card should represent a person, event, or place and include scores with short explanations.

Focus on skills: comparing examples, applying knowledge, and explaining judgements.

Tip: Make sure your scoring is fair and that you can explain why each score was given.

4. Stop Motion / Animation

Communicate History

Create a short stop-motion animation or digital animation showing an event or development from one topic studied this year. Include accurate historical details, key events or characters, and a clear sequence showing what happened.

Focus on skills: chronology, storytelling, and applying historical knowledge.

Tip: Keep it simple, but make sure your animation shows what happened and why it was important.

5. Teaching Video

Communicate History

Create a teaching video about a key historical skill, such as source analysis, making inferences, cause and consequence, significance, or evaluating reliability.

Include a clear explanation, accurate historical information, key terms, relevant visuals, and a model question or example.

Focus on skills: explaining ideas, using evidence, communicating clearly, and applying historical knowledge.

Tip: Imagine you are teaching someone who has never studied the topic before.

6. Interactive Timeline Project

Think Like a Historian

Create a detailed timeline showing 10–15 important events from a Historical topic.

Include dates, key events, images or illustrations, and short explanations showing how events are connected.

Focus on skills: chronology, cause and consequence, and significance.

Tip: Don't just list events. Explain how they are connected and why the most important events matter.

7. Historical Detective Project

Think Like a Historian

Investigate a historical mystery or question using at least 4 historical sources.

Include the question, your sources, key evidence, different possible explanations, and your final conclusion.

Focus on skills: analysing evidence, making inferences, evaluating sources, and reaching a conclusion.

Tip: Explain how confident you are in your conclusion and use evidence to support your answer.

8. Game Show Project

Apply Historical Knowledge / Communicate History

Create a 3–5 minute podcast about an event, person, idea, or development from a Historical topic.

Include accurate historical information, key terms, interesting details, and evidence to support your explanation.

Focus on skills: communicating clearly, selecting key information, and explaining significance.

Tip: Imagine you are making a podcast for someone who wants to learn about the topic.

9. Game Design Project

Apply Historical Knowledge / Communicate History

Design a simple history game based on a Historical topic. This could be a card game, board game, or another type of playable game.

Include clear rules, accurate historical content, and questions or tasks that test key knowledge.

Focus on skills: applying knowledge, selecting key information, and creative thinking.

Tip: Test your game with a friend or family member to make sure it is clear, accurate, and fun to play.

10. Source Creation

Explore the Past

Create 6–8 historical sources linked to a Historical topic. These could include diary entries, letters, photographs, posters, or artefacts.

Include context and explain what each source reveals about the past.

Focus on skills: understanding evidence, interpreting sources, and recognising different perspectives.

Tip: Try to show different viewpoints and think carefully about what each source can tell us.

11. Historical Trial

Judge and Remember / Think Like a Historian

Put a person from a Historical topic on trial. Ask a historical question such as “Were they responsible?” or “Did they make the right decision?”

Present evidence and arguments from both sides before reaching a verdict.

Focus on skills: making judgements, using evidence, and considering different perspectives.

Tip: Make sure you consider both sides before deciding your verdict.

12. Museum Exhibit

Judge and Remember:

Design a museum exhibit showing how an event or person from a Historical topic should be remembered.

Include objects, images, captions, and descriptions, and explain why you chose them.

Focus on skills: understanding significance, evaluating interpretations, and exploring historical legacy.

Tip: Think carefully about what you include, what you leave out, and why.
