Common Assessment Template

EAL Year 8, term 1b

Focus of assessment: The opening chapters of Holes by Louis Sachar

Date of Assessment: Week commencing 10th November

Description of assessment: Students will respond to a short extract from this novel in which they will be tested on their understanding of vocabulary in context and their ability to infer meaning from the text.

Marking criteria

Students will respond via a mixture of short answer questions. The paper is marked out of 20 and there are 3 different activities to complete.

Teachers will also use this assessment to gauge the students place on the Bell Assessment Framework. This task reflects the skills needed for:

READING AND VIEWING
BAND C	Can decipher the meaning of unfamiliar words by using context knowledge and inference. Can understand meaning across sentences and passages. Can understand fictional texts written in contemporary prose, but may still need help to distinguish literal meaning from implied meaning.
BAND D	Can use a range of reading and viewing strategies as appropriate for the task. Can select, transfer and transform information from a text, selecting relevant details for the purpose. Can read a wide range of curriculum-related texts with understanding (including literature) and interpret content meaning beyond literal where appropriate.

Suggested Revision Approaches: Familiarise yourself with the opening of the novel, so you are aware of the setting. Students should ensure that they are aware of a range of reading strategies which may help them to speed up their responses.
