Capstone Project: LEDU Talks - My Story of Faith as a Year 9 Lasallian

This capstone project is designed to be the culminating assessment for the Year 9 Term 1 unit, "Foundations of Faith and Lasallian Teamwork: Building a Community of Service." It requires students to synthesize their learning and articulate their personal understanding of faith within the context of their Lasallian identity.

GRASP Framework

- GOAL: To design and deliver a compelling and reflective "LEDU Talk" that articulates your personal story of faith as a Year 9 Lasallian, demonstrating your understanding of Lasallian values and their application in your life.
- ROLE: You are a Year 9 student at SJIS Malaysia, a Lasallian speaker invited to share your story of faith with your peers.
- AUDIENCE: Your peers, teachers, and possibly other members of the SJIS community.
- SITUATION: You have been asked to contribute to the "LEDU Talks" series, a platform for sharing personal stories and insights that inspire and uplift the community.
- PERFORMANCE: You will prepare and deliver a 3-5 minute oral presentation (LEDU Talk) with a maximum of 5 slides that:
 - Articulates your personal understanding of faith.
 - Connects your understanding of faith to Lasallian values, particularly "Faith" and "A Lasallian is a Team Player".
 - Shares personal experiences that have shaped your faith journey.
 - Offers insights or reflections on how faith informs your actions and relationships within the Lasallian community.

Step 1: Personal Understanding of Faith

Step 2: Connection to Lasallian Values

Step 3: Shaping Experiences

Step 4: Insights on Actions and Relationships

Step 5: Concrete Future Actions

ENQUIRY QUESTION

How does my personal faith guide me to act for others and serve my community?

Lesson Objectives

At the end of the lessons, the pupils are able to:

- ARTICULATE a personal story of "faith in action."
- SELECT powerful images to visually represent a core belief.
- BEGIN TO DRAFT their narrative for the LEDU Talks capstone project.

WELCOME BACK 🖐️

Today: faith, values, action, and your LEDU Talk.

QUICK FIRE!

Someone is sitting alone at lunch.
What would you DO?

WHY would someone choose that action?

FAITH OR ACTION?

What do our choices reveal about what we believe?

A friend is stressed before an exams.

→ Check in on them.

Someone in your class gets left out of a group.

→ Invite them in.

You made a mistake.

→ Own it and apologise.

Someone needs help.

→ Offer what you can.

What belief or value might be underneath the action?

FAITH IS NOT ONLY WHAT I BELIEVE. IT CAN ALSO SHAPE
WHAT I DO.

WHAT DOES "FAITH IN ACTION" MEAN?

Faith in action means allowing what I believe to influence how I live, treat people, and respond to needs around me.

Where do you see faith becoming action?

FAITH

What do I believe?

VALUES

What matters because of what I believe?

ACTION

What do I do because of it?

SERVICE

How does that benefit others?

Faith isn't just something we believe; it's something we show through our actions, big and small.

GROUP CHALLENGE: FROM BELIEF TO ACTION

Build the chain: BELIEF → VALUE → ACTION → SERVICE

Everyone deserves dignity.

People should not be left behind.

Forgiveness matters.

We are responsible for one another.

Helping others matters.

What action could come from this belief?

Explain your chain in 60 seconds.

Nature Walk - Visual Essay
Adeline Gomez

"It never hurts to keep looking for sunshine"

Title Page

There's this whole
of nature,
you can't find it, the nature starts everywhere.
Because the flow has already got out of control, even a bad day works.
Nature can be a challenge, but it's there.

Looking forward to getting out with friends and looking for the sunset. The flow is the best for you.

Look at the sun and the moon
and the stars.
They are all
in the sky, and
they are all
in the sky, and
they are all in the sky.

Remember that after a big storm there is hope for it, you clearly also. You are going to get back out for it.

There is the best
of nature, and
there is the best
of nature, and
there is the best
of nature.

There's always the light at the end of the tunnel, and the sunset is a great way to see it, through the rough spots.

It's okay to leave your past behind and look for a better future ahead.

If you find yourself alone, keep moving forward because people do care about you, and you will be found soon like a lost dog.

Even when things are looking down for you, just look up and remember brighter days, among the horizon.

When you are at your lowest point in life just remember it will get better with each mountain you climb.

GUIDE to creating My Faithbook

1. Find and Name Your Story

- Think about a time you really showed what you believe—a moment of kindness, courage, or helping others. This is your "faith in action" story.
- Find six photos that tell your story from start to finish. You can use your own pictures or images you find online that match the feeling of your story.
- Get your Canva project ready. Make sure it's A4 size, and rename the file to: NAME - My Faithbook 2026-27.

2. Design Your Story Pages

- Your goal is to create eight A4 pages in your Canva project.
- The first page will be your introduction. The next six pages will each have one photo and a brief description. The final page will be your reflection about your project.
- Each description should be at least 25 words long and explain why that picture is part of your story and what it means to you.

3. Add Your Story's Introduction and Conclusion

- The first page of your project will be your overall description.
- This description should be no more than 100 words. Think of it as the introduction to your whole story—it gives a sneak peek of what your talk will be about.
- The last page will be your 50 word reflection as conclusion about your project.

The coffee ritual is a powerful act of self-care. The deliberate process of brewing—grinding beans, inhaling the rich aroma, and pouring the hot water—is a grounding, mindful practice that anchors a hectic day. This moment of peace offers a chance to pause, focus on the present, and reset both mind and body. Beyond the ritual, moderate consumption provides a mental lift by boosting mood and enhancing focus, turning a simple beverage into a tool for mental wellness.

El ritual del café es un poderoso acto de autocuidado. El proceso deliberado de prepararlo, inhalar su rico aroma y saborear su calidez, ofrece un momento consciente de paz que ancla un día ajetreado. Esta pausa diaria brinda la oportunidad de reducir el estrés y fomentar la reflexión. Más allá del ritual, su consumo moderado puede mejorar el estado de ánimo y el enfoque, convirtiendo una simple bebida en una herramienta para el bienestar mental.

CONCLUSION

काफी का सेवन एक शक्तिशाली आत्म-देखभाल है। जीन को पीसने, उसकी समृद्ध सुगंध को अंदर लेने, और गर्म पेय का स्वाद लेने की प्रक्रिया एक ज़मीनी, सचेत अभ्यास है जो एक व्यस्त दिन को स्थिरता प्रदान करता है। शांति का यह क्षण रुकने, वर्तमान पर ध्यान केंद्रित करने और मन और शरीर को फिर से स्थापित करने का अवसर प्रदान करता है। इस अनुष्ठान से परे, मध्यम मात्रा में सेवन करने से मूड को बेहतर बनाने और एकाग्रता बढ़ाने के साथ-साथ मानसिक शांति मिलती है, जिससे एक साधारण पेय मानसिक स्वास्थ्य के लिए एक उपयोगी साधन बन जाता है।

TASK FOR THIS WEEK

1. Cover Page (Full Name, Section, Photo Essay Title, Photo)
2. Introduction Page (100 words)
3. Photo Essay Page 1 to 3 (per page: a photo and at least 25 word description)

1. Photo Essay Page 4 to 6 (per page: a photo and at least 25 word description)
2. Conclusion Page (50 words)
3. Submission (Save as PDF and upload via a Google Link Drive that your teacher will post on your Google Classroom Stream.)

A SIMPLE GUIDE CREATING AN INTRODUCTION

1. What is the central theme or subject of the photo essay? (This defines the core focus.)
2. What is the main emotional tone or overall message you want the viewer to take away? (This establishes the mood and purpose.)
3. What specific problem, question, or unique aspect does your photo essay explore or try to answer? (This provides context and a hook.)
4. Where and/or when did you capture these photos, and why is this setting or time period significant? (This grounds the work in a specific reality.)
5. In one concise sentence, what is the journey or story the viewer is about to embark on? (This serves as the concluding invitation or thesis statement for the intro.)

GROUP DISCUSSION: MY FAITHBOOK STORY - NEXT WEEK!

The 3-Minute Presentation: Sharing Your Story

When it's your turn, focus on delivering the most important and impactful parts of your story within the 3-minute limit. Keep it simple and direct.

Time Allotment	Action	Focus
0:00-0:30	Introduction Briefly	introduce your story. What is the central theme or event?
0:30-2:30	The Core Story	Share the key "chapters" or main points of your story. Prioritize impact over detail. What did you learn? How did your faith grow?
2:30-3:00	Conclusion	Briefly summarize the main takeaway or how your faith is different now because of this experience.

GROUP DISCUSSION: MY FAITHBOOK STORY

Tips for Giving Feedback:

- Be Specific: Instead of "It was good," say "Your opening hook was very compelling."
- Be Constructive: Frame suggestions positively: "To make it even better, you could..."
- Be Concise: Keep your points brief so everyone has a chance to contribute.

The goal is to help each other refine their storytelling skills and make their "My Faithbook Story" as clear and meaningful as possible. Ready to begin?

BUILD YOUR LEDU TALK

"One thing I believe is _____."

This connects to the Lasallian value of _____ because _____.

I try to live this out by _____."

This is your first piece of the LEDU Talk.

Synthesis

This lesson serves as a critical bridge, helping you move from understanding the concepts of faith and service to living them out.

The Faith in Action Photo Essay is your first step in preparing for the LEDU Talks, allowing you to find and organize your most powerful stories.

By doing this work, you're not just completing a project—you're beginning to see that your individual journey isn't a solo mission, but an essential part of the larger Lasallian story.

Your personal narrative, shared with authenticity, will become a vital contribution to our team, inspiring others just as a powerful solo performance can lift an entire team

CONNECTION WITH PREVIOUS LESSON

In our last lesson, we defined faith as the core of our Lasallian team spirit and explored how it unites us.

Now, we're moving from a collective understanding of our team's mission to your personal role within it.

The Faith in Action Photo Essay serves as a bridge, helping you pinpoint the moments when your own beliefs have contributed to the larger community.

This lesson challenges you to identify your individual narrative, which is a vital part of the team story we're building.

Connection with De La Salle:

De La Salle's faith was always in action.

He didn't just believe in serving the poor; he left his life of privilege to do it.

He didn't just have a vision for education; he walked from town to town, enduring hardship to make it happen.

His entire life is a photo essay of faith in action, a testament to how one person's story, motivated by core beliefs, can change the world.

Reflection Log

How will you show the skills of collaboration, creativity, or patience to be a better team player in the next week, either at school, at home, or in a public space?

Please write your answer in the log provided.

TASK FOR TODAY (October 6, 2025)

My Faithbook Story Reflection

Guide Questions: My Faithbook Story (Minimum 30 words per question)

1. [My Action] What key moment in your story best shows your faith in action and the value it represents? What did you do that showed your belief?
2. [My Growth] What is the most important lesson you learned about yourself or your faith while creating this story? How is your perspective different now?
3. [My Impact] How can you use your story's message to better inspire or assist your Lasallian community? What will you focus on next?
